WINGS®
GLOBAL TRAVEL

An exceptional experience for you and your travellers. Every time.

As a travel arranger your role is to ensure that your travellers have a great experience on every trip. They are driving profit for the business. It's up to you to make sure that nothing gets in the way. That means taking care of every detail, managing all the moving parts and planning for every eventuality.

Wings supports you with unrivalled service, a dedicated travel team and best-in-class technology. We simplify even the most complex travel with continuous support before, during and after the trip. Our role is to make your life easier while creating an exceptional experience for your travellers.

Our professional services clients rely on Wings for:

- A dedicated team providing a tailored gold-standard service for every traveller
- Agile service that copes effortlessly with changes to bookings and itineraries, however frequent or last-minute
- A seamless, stress-free experience – we manage online check-in, seat allocation and special requests as part of every booking
- Meticulous care of traveller safety and wellbeing from traveller tracking and real-time safety alerts
- Minimising the impact of disruption and doing whatever it takes to resolve problems
- 'Always here' 24/7/365 traveller support and extended hours access to our consultants for travel managers, including weekends
- Cost savings and efficiencies across your entire travel programme
- VIP options such as fast-track passport control/customs, chauffeur service, restaurant and concierge, meeting room booking and meet and greet

Our partnerships with professional services clients are built on a traditional service ethos delivered by dedicated travel experts who understand your business. This is why more than 90% of our business comes from referrals and personal recommendations.

"We have worked with Wings and their amazing team for several years now. The service levels, response time, insight, client knowledge and industry update is top-notch. Above all the relationship is personal and that matters!"

Wings client

The power of one

One mission
To deliver unrivalled service to the professional services sector

One service ethos
Agile, responsive and personal. Right every time

One company
Wholly owned and operated since 1992 with London HQ and operations on six continents

One team
No outsourced call centres or affiliates

One tech platform
A unified tech platform delivers a consistent experience everywhere for travellers, bookers and finance teams

WINGS ONE